Quarterly fund commentary

Asia ex Japan equity markets continued to rally in Q3 thanks to solid corporate earnings and favourable macroeconomic conditions. China was the region's best-performing market as confidence in the outlook for corporate earnings lifted market sentiment, while economic data remained robust, with positive manufacturing surveys and solid industrial profits. Hong Kong's equity market also benefitted from positive sentiment towards Chinese equities, while India's equity market made gains thanks to the favourable outlook for the economy and corporate earnings. The roll-out of India's new goods and services tax (GST) only had a temporary drag on business activity, as investor confidence quickly recovered to focus on the resilience of consumption related areas. ASEAN equity market returns were mixed. The Thai market rallied strongly on hopes of a recovery in exports and tourism, while Indonesia's market produced flat returns for the quarter. Our investment strategy is to take a selective approach with a strong focus on bottom-up stock opportunities. In terms of overall country allocation, the fund remains well-balanced in our view, with a focus on opportunities in China and India, and an underweight position in ASEAN equity markets relative to the reference index.
