Quarterly fund commentary

The year ended with confidence among many economic commentators and capital market participants at high levels. Recent economic data confirmed the health of key US, Eurozone and Chinese economies. Listed real estate performance was led by European REITs, but all regions of the world showed positive performance. Growth prospects for earnings and dividends in 2018 lie in mid-single digits, with an average dividend yield opportunity just below 4%. Fundamentals for real estate around the world remain generally supportive, with some pockets of weakness in obvious sectors, such as secondary retail, and a few markets, especially in the US, where over-supply is denting growth opportunities. Investor appetite for prime quality private real estate assets remains strong. Listed companies are tending to continue to be net sellers of their assets into market demand. As at 31 December 2017, the weighted average current yield of the portfolio of underlying security investments was 4.0%, represented by approximately 62% common shares, 13% preferred shares, 21% fixed income and the remainder cash. The weighted average current yields on the fund's common, preferred stock, and fixed income investments were 3.7%, 6.3% and 4.2%, respectively. Please note the fund is not managed with a primary objective of achieving a return relative to the fund's reference index.

Risk Warnings

The value of investments and any income will fluctuate (this may partly be the result of exchange rate fluctuations) and investors may not get back the full amount invested. Debt instruments are exposed to credit risk which is the ability of the borrower to repay the interest and capital on the redemption date. The fund may hold a large amount of Asset Backed Securities (ABS) (complex instruments) as well as lower quality debt securities which may impact the liquidity of the fund under certain circumstances. As this fund is invested in a particular sector, you should be prepared to accept greater fluctuations of the value of the fund than for a fund with a broader investment mandate.
