When the issue is not rated, the rating condition shall be fulfilled by the issuer. No investments shall be made in issues where the issuer is not rated.

The Master-Fund will invest in securities denominated in euros and/or US dollars and/or pounds sterling. In so far as the securities are not denominated in euros, the Master-Fund will systematically hedge the exchange risk. The Fund's and the Master-Fund's base currency is the Euro.

Derivative instruments traded on regulated markets or OTC, may be used for hedging and/or exposure purposes on interest rate and/or credit derivative markets and for hedging purposes on currency derivative markets.

Recommended investment horizon: the Fund may not be appropriate for investors who plan to withdraw their money before 31 December 2022.

The Master-Fund shall accept no subscription after 30 September 2016 at 11:00 a.m. Consequently, as a feeder-fund, no subscriptions will be accepted in the Fund after 29 September 2016 at 4:00 p.m.

Credit risk: the Fund can invest in debt securities. There is a risk that the issuer may default. The likelihood of this happening will depend on the credit-worthiness of the issuer.

Counterparty risk: the Fund enters into contracts with various counterparties. If a counterparty does not fulfil its obligations to the Fund (e.g. not paying an agreed amount or not delivering securities as agreed) the Fund can suffer a loss.

Interest rate risk: an increase in interest rates may cause the value of fixed income securities held by the Fund to decline. Bonds prices and yield have an inverse relationship, when the price of a bond falls the yield rises.

Risk linked to the impact of management techniques: risk of increased losses owing to the use of financial futures instruments such as OTC financial agreements, and/or the temporary acquisition and transfer of securities, and/or futures contracts, and/or derivative instruments. This risk may lower the net asset value.

Selection risk: the Investment Manager's judgment about the attractiveness, value and potential appreciation of a particular company's security could be incorrect.

Emerging markets risk: emerging markets are more likely to experience political uncertainty and investments held in these countries may not have the same protection as those held in more developed countries.
